HEARING

This matter comes before court for a waiver hearing. This hearing is being recorded by FTR and Webex.

Counsel make appearances. Michael Burt and Richard Novak appear Pro Hac Vice for the Defendant. The court addresses counsel on the appearance of Mr. Burt and Mr. Novak and finds that the attorneys meet and exceed the requirements under Rule 8.

Court inquires as to the posture of today's hearing.

Mr. Grunander address the court regarding Rule 16 and states that discovery will be sent once Ms. Nester makes the request.

Mr. Grunander also address the court on the protection order and discusses the issues of ongoing witnesses coming to light.

Ms. Nester addresses court. The court states it understands that there may be more witnesses as the investigation proceeds and asked counsel to share the order with witness as they become aware.

Ms. Nester addresses the court and states that it is not the intent of the Defendant to waive his right to the preliminary hearing. Ms. Nester also informs the court that she will not be requesting a detention hearing at this time but will keep the court informed as to the scheduling of the preliminary hearing and filing a motion to address detention.

Court address counsel and all patrons on the courts objective to preserve the rights of the Defendant and Victims.

Court address counsel on the next hearing and states that it is the courts preference for an in person hearing. Ms. Nester agrees and would also like the next hearing to be in person with the Defendant present. The Court schedules the next court date.
